

Pick-up Service Authorization Form (Taiwan)

1. If the information you provided is completed, the Company (S.F. Express) will pick up and send the shipment directly based on the information provided without any further confirmation.
2. If the information you provided is incomplete, the Company (S.F. Express) will contact you to check the information only for the parts that affect the shipment export. It is the responsibility for you and your consignee to confirm the rest of the information. The Company (S.F. Express) will provide the delivery service based on the actual content of the shipment provided from your consignee.
3. If the shipment content provided by your consignee is not matched with what you filled in, you agree that the Company (S.F. Express) has no obligation to check the information and you will bear all the damages and costs caused.

Example: Assignor informed the Company (S.F. Express) that a shipment weighted at 10 kg, but there is a weight discrepancy on the shipment that the assignor passed to the Company (S.F. Express). If the Company (S.F. Express) found this situation before exporting the shipment, the Company (S.F. Express) will contact the assignor and ask if he/she would agree to ship this shipment. If yes, additional shipment orders must be placed. If not, the extra amount of shipment will be returned and the delivery charge will be responsible by assignor.

If assignor discovers the weight of shipment is not matched with that written on the collection form when receiving the shipment, assignor should be responsible for the delivery charge based on the actual weight of shipment.
